Belardi – Klein Duo

Jerome Klein and Pol Belardi's duo project is a testament to their enduring friendship and musical partnership, spanning over two decades of shared experiences on stage. Set for an album release in mid-2025, their collaboration promises a fresh take on modern composition, blending Jerome's delicate piano with Pol's evocative vibraphone in an acoustic and beautifully fragile setting. Between cinematographic landscapes and epic interplay, their broad experience as composers delivers the musical framework whereas their talent as improvisers with colorful musical backgrounds stands for guaranteed spontaneity and a vital live experience.
